What makes PSA®-TEC different from the numerous other securities shows that dot every security professional's calendar?

PSA®-TEC delivers over 450 hours of intense face-to-face classes taught by industry leading professionals and certified, outsourced specialist.

So exactly what is the PSA®-TEC event all about?

- Project management training and certification specific to the security industry
- Sales management training for security professionals
- MS SQL Server training
- Access control certification for enterprise level systems
- The latest in wireless transmission education
- Government security specialist sharing the latest inside information
- IP training for beginners, intermediate, and advanced attendees
- Network training for beginning, intermediate, and advanced attendees

- Comp TIA network certification
- Health care consultants discussing the latest trends & electronic security needs
- Video analytics classes taught by world leaders in intelligent video
- Open-book management workshops
- Security data analysis seminars
- IP security consultants seminars
- Wireless access certification
- Video management server & storage design
- Designing TCP/IP networks
- How to subnet TCP/IP
- Purchasing agents roundtable

The list goes on and on with over 75 classes and structured events, dozens of networking opportunities, and possibly the most unique format ever presented to security integrators.

Although PSA®-TEC is open to all security professionals, it is not for everyone. Those seeking elementary or introductory information would be better served elsewhere.
