

Chair

Spencer Rundell

Southeastern Security Professionals (SSP) | Operations Manager

Spencer Rundell is the Operations Manager and co-founder of Southeastern Security Professionals (SSP). He has 20 years of experience in the electronic security and life safety industry. His primary focus is in process improvement, operational efficiency and team building. Hobbies outside of work include Jiu-Jitsu, cycling and snowboarding.

Spencer holds the following certifications:

NICET IV FAS

CSPM (Certified Security Project Manager)

John Maxwell Team certified coach

State license holder and/or qualifying agent in the following States: GA, FL, SC, AL, TN and NC.

Committee Members

Rex Allen

Securadyne Systems | Operations Manager

Rex has over 20 years of security project management experience in government and private sector contracts. He has performed as a Project Manager and as a Director of Operations for national security contractors specializing in the design, installation, and service of integrated security solutions for the Federal Government and Institutional Sectors. He has worked as a Senior Project Manager and Program Manager for Intelligent Access Systems and as an Operations Manager for Securadyne Systems, specializing in the design and implementation of integrated security systems for clients in the transportation and energy critical infrastructure sectors. He is a member of the PSA Committee on Project Management and an instructor for the SIA Security Project Management Course.

Katie Blough

PSA | Project Manager & Business Analyst

Katie has been in the technology industry for five years. She has an undergraduate degree in Computer Information Systems from Metropolitan State University and is working towards her Project Management certification through University of Colorado. Katie ensures project initiatives are well defined, and delivered successfully, on time, and within budget for PSA/USAV.

William Byington

Northland Controls | PMO Deputy Director

Bill has been in the security industry for 29 years, working for California Safety Co, Siemens, Pyrotronics, DOD, Sun Micro Systems, Convergent Technologies, and Northland Controls. He has held positions from Installer to Operations Manager and currently serves the Global Security Program Manager of Facebook for Northland Controls.

Ken Darnell

Security Equipment, Inc. | Commercial Installation Project Manager

Ken Darnell is a project manager for Security Equipment Inc. in Omaha Nebraska. He has filled this role for 2 years now managing large commercial projects and is currently transitioning to managing national account projects. Ken has been in the security industry for 4 years but has 27 years electronics experience with a back ground in Naval Aviation Maintenance. Ken received his Associates of Applied Science in Computer and Electronics Engineering Technology from I.T.T. in December 2010. He also has certifications from AXIS, Salient, Exaqc, and DMP.

Eric Duneman

Southeastern Security Professionals (SSP) | National Project Manager

Eric Duneman is an Atlanta based National Project Manager with Southeastern Security Professionals (SSP), a national company specializing in low voltage and security enhancements. Although Eric has been employed by SSP for fifteen years, he holds eighteen years' experience in various positions within this industry, such as Installation & Service Technician.

When Eric isn't working his hobbies include snowboarding, hiking, camping, golf, fishing and vacationing at the beach.

One of Eric's favorite quotes -

"Your Positive Action Combined with Positive Thinking Results in Success." - Shiv Khera