

PSA TRAINING BUCKS

The purchases you make through PSA earn credits to be used by you and your company for education at PSA TEC, the industry's leading education and networking event, and other PSA educational offerings. These credits are referred to as Training Bucks and equal approximately 0.060% of your total purchases. You may use your Training Bucks for PSA events and training as listed below.

QUALIFYING EXPENSES

The following expenses are eligible for automatic deduction through PSA:

PSA EVENT REGISTRATION- Registration and applicable course fees for PSA TEC, Convention (including guest registration fees) and other PSA events.

ELITE/P3 PARTNER TRAINING- Training credits or course fees when purchased through the PSA webstore, BuyPSA.com.

The following expenses are eligible for reimbursement:

TRAVEL- PSA will reimburse you for travel expenses incurred in getting you and your staff to or from PSA events. This includes airfare (coach/economy class only), car rental, airport transfers or taxi. (Food and beverage are not included.)

HOTEL- PSA will reimburse you for lodging expenses while at PSA events. This includes cost of hotel room (standard room or PSA negotiated rates), taxes on the room, resort fee (if applicable) and Internet access costs billed to your room.

PSA APPROVED EDUCATION- Certain PSA education and partner program fees, including programs such as SecurityCEU are eligible to be reimbursed using Training Bucks. Education classes outside of PSA events **require prior authorization from the PSA Education team**. Submit requests for pre-approval to trainingbucks@psasecurity.com.

PSA PEG- If you are a member of a PSA PEG (Peer Exchange Group), your Training Bucks can be used to pay for your participation as outlined above.

No food or beverages are reimbursable using PSA Training bucks.

All reimbursement expenses must be supported by receipts showing the expense has been paid.
